The chart displays the Dow Jones Industrial Average (DJIA) from 2023 to 2025. The main chart area shows the price movement using candlesticks, with a blue moving average line and a black trendline. The y-axis represents the Dow Jones Industrial Average, ranging from 39,000 to 48,000. The x-axis shows time, with labels for Jan 2025, Apr 2025, Jul 2025, and Oct 2025. The chart includes numerous horizontal dashed lines representing price levels, with some labeled with values like 47943.16, 45518.25, 43614.57, 42277.47, 40940.37, 39285.99, and 36611.78. The chart also displays shaded green and blue regions and a momentum indicator at the bottom.

The momentum indicator at the bottom of the chart shows the rate of change in the price. It is a yellow line that fluctuates around a red dashed line at 0.0. The y-axis for the momentum indicator ranges from -0.1 to 0.1. The x-axis for the momentum indicator is aligned with the main chart, showing time from 2023 to 2025.

The chart displays the EUR/USD currency pair's price movement over a 20-year period. The blue line represents a moving average, showing a long-term upward trend. The shaded regions highlight specific market phases: green for early volatility and blue for later, more structured movements. The labeled price points, such as 90770.84, 109000.47, and 126198.07, mark significant price levels where the market found temporary equilibrium or experienced sharp shifts. The overall pattern suggests a series of peaks and troughs, with the price generally trending upwards despite periodic corrections.
